Historical Data:

In 1785 Anthony Warrick purchased from Grace Bassett and Joseph Sharp, executors of the elder Joseph Sharp, for 1,000 pounds gold and silver money 228 acres in what was then Gloucester County. Upon this land Anthony Warrick erected the house in 1794. The north gable bears the initials "A. E. W." with that date; the initials standing for Anthony Warrick and his wife, whatever her name was.

In 1828 under the will of Anthony Warrick, the executors John Albertson, Thomas Rodman and Samuel Nicholson, sold to Anthony H., Samuel, and Elizabeth

Warrick. The sum involved was $5986.25 and the land was two hundred thirty-four and forty-five hundred acres. In this is mentioned the Mansion House on the property. In 1837 Joshua P. Browning, Sheriff, sold to Thomas Davis. The land had been seized from Samuel Warrick through a report of commissioners appointed by the Inferior court to divide the lands and real estate of Isaac Warrick.

In 1843 Thomas Davis sold to Isaac Knight the house and thirty-eight and thirty-four hundred acres of land. There are several transfers recorded until 1917 when William R. Wood sold to Gregor Jackiewicz.
